

Father's Home newsletter, December 2011

Dear friends,
Here a short winter flash to end the year!

Thankfulness

The Jackson are doing well, they are impatiently expecting the birth of their first baby, coming on this month!

The children and the parents

Everybody is doing fine; the children living in Father's Home are 31 and the ones outside home are 16, a record since these past ten years!

Anto

The work is advancing on the new land. The evolution is progressive, which is encouraging.
